

In Indiana, we have done it right! No more telephone calls at dinner time, no calls throughout the day, no more sales harrassment. Now the government wants to end this?? Other states want to implement the same law. Please, work on catching the CEO's and other dishonest people running our business and country, and leave sane laws alone.